

Next Level Armament

Limited Lifetime Warranty Policy

All Next Level Armament products hold a lifetime guaranteed from manufacturer's defects. Any product found to be defective can be returned for a full refund in accordance with Next Level's return/refund policy (see return/refund policy for details). All defective products that fall outside the scope of the return/refund policy will be serviced or replaced at Next Level Armament's discretion.

This warranty is void if the original product is altered, modified, or disassembled. This warranty covers normal operating conditions and proper use for which the product was designed. This warranty is void from misuse and/or abuse of the product. Next Level Armament retains the right to evaluate the defective product to determine the cause of failure before repairing or issuing a warranty exchange.
